

Welcome to Terra Ceia CRC! We invite you to join us for a potluck lunch after the morning service in the Fellowship Hall.

Today's Worship

Our morning worship today is based on Psalm 89, which reminds us that God is faithful and never breaks his promise to be with us, no matter where we are or in whatever circumstance we face. The message this evening is based on Acts 4:23-31, and helps us understand why prayer is possible, not useless or unnecessary.

Preaching: Al Kuiper
Offerings: General Fund

Praise & Prayer Requests for

- ♥ Rodney G recovering after surgery.
- ♥ The Alons family grieving the loss of a wife, mother, and grandmother.
- ♥ Devon R traveling after the service project in Houston.

- ♥ Earl DH recuperating from shoulder surgery.
- ♥ Our ministries this week—Sunday School, Coffee Break, Story Hour, Book Club and Yokefellows.

Announcements

Service Update: Devon has had a good week working in Little Saigon, a part of Houston, Texas. They have been replacing insulation, ceilings and wiring in a Vietnamese church that had its roof taken off by the hurricane. They also have worked at a couple of homes in the area. He did spend time in Urgent Care after stepping on a nail but is recuperating well. He has enjoyed authentic Vietnamese foods and culture. Keep him in your prayers as he will be traveling farther west for several weeks.

Next Potluck: The next potluck with World Renew will be on Sunday, February 11.

Book Club: Book Club was postponed last week and will meet at 5:30 pm Tuesday at Anita's to discuss The Christmas Star by Robert Tate Miller. The next book is Bud not Buddy (details at right).

Dear friends at Terra Ceia CRC: Thank you for your gracious southern hospitality shown to the World Renew DRS teams. Team 5 thoroughly enjoyed the time of worship and fellowship we experienced with you last Sunday. You made us feel welcome and we were well fed both spiritually and physically. Thank you and God bless you all!

Worship Futures: The message Sunday morning, "The God Who Knows My Name," is based on Exodus 3:1-15, and reminds us that the God who knows us by name can be both disturbing and comforting. The message Sunday evening, "On Eagles' Wings" is based on Isaiah 40:23-31 where God uses the image of eagle wings to lift up his people with renewing strength and healing.

Growth through Controversy: Whenever we're confronted with something new, we're forced to consider and re-evaluate the legitimacy of what we know. Join Groundwork as we study Acts 15 to see how God works to create growth as the early church believers discern their way through controversy. Listen now at GroundworkOnline.com and subscribe to Groundwork's weekly emails for future episodes.

Bud Not Buddy

By Christopher Paul Curtis

It's 1936, in Flint Michigan. Times may be hard, and ten-year-old Bud may be a motherless boy on the run, but Bud's got a few things going for him:

1. He has his own suitcase full of special things.
2. He's the author of Bud Caldwell's Rules and Things for Having a Funner Life and Making a Better Liar Out of Yourself.
3. His momma never told him who his father was, but she left a clue: flyers advertising Herman E. Calloway and his famous band, the Dusky Devastators of the Depression!!!!!!

Bud's got an idea that those flyers will lead him to his father. Once he decides to hit the road to find this mystery man, nothing can stop him—not hunger, not fear, not vampires, not even Herman E. Calloway himself.
