And doing through me the things that I read.

I am the glove that your hand has filled;

I am the cup into which you have spilled

All the love and the power which you promised would come,

Right now in the present and for everyone.

Since the Spirit came.

When the Spirit comes

Before the Spirit came, you were just words on a page,

Black on white and yellowed with age.

Simply a story of long ago,

Of a man who had so much love to show;

Who healed the sick and cured the lame;

Took our guilt and bore our shame.

It sounded so good, but it just couldn't last.

It was not for today but locked in the past.

Until the Spirit came.

Now the Spirit has come, you are here at my side,

Larger than life and ready to guide;

Making real to me all that you said
